

Lunchtime Learning 2021 – Wednesday sessions 12:00-13:00

Date	Topic	Led By
24th February	Social Work Leadership            Social workers, not least palliative care social workers, often say, "I'm not a leader."            The message of this session is, "Oh yes, you are!"            Anne will present some of the findings from her MRES and PhD research projects to support this statement and to encourage members to explore ideas about how they can develop their own leadership, as practitioners, managers, supervisors or educators.	Anne Cullen            APCSW Research Lead            Schwartz Round Mentor,            The Point of Care Foundation
24th March	Safeguarding/Mental Capacity	Dave Haigh, Prospect Hospice
21st April	'Temporal otherness, disappearance and distance in palliative care research'	Yasmin Gunaratnam            Goldsmiths College, London
12th May	"Choosing a group work approach: back to basics and adapting to working online "	Pam Firth            Trustee Grief Encounters,            APCSW EAPC Lead
19th May	Benefits overview	Aida Shoush            Welfare Officer, St Christopher's Hospice            APCSW Welfare Benefits Adviser
9th June	Covid Rehab group	Julia Manning            Epsom &amp; St Helier            Palliative Care Team
23rd June	Sourcing and paying for care	Aida Shoush
7th July	Practical things that workers can do in helping patients:            Update on funeral poverty in terms of (upcoming) changes in the broader landscape	Lindesay Mace            Down to Earth
21st July	Reflections and responses to Covid-19 across the bereavement sector'	Alison Penny            Child Bereavement Network            National Bereavement Alliance