

APCSW 2021 Conference:

What Matters Most: Human Rights Challenges for Palliative Care Social Workers

30th September and 1st, 4th/5th October

Provisional Agenda

Date	Topic	Time	Speaker
Thursday 30th September	Welcome and Introduction to conference and 1st session	9.15 – 9.30 am
	Palliative Care and Racism	9.30 - 10.30 am	Dr Jonathan Koffman, King's College London University
	Asserting the value and status of specialist palliative care social work: Post qualification education and certification	12.00- 1.00pm	Dr Audrey Roulston, Queens University Belfast
	Members Presentations On Human Rights	3.00 – 4.30 pm
Friday 1st October	Reflective Session Their experience of being Social Workers in a faith and culture organisation (practitioner "voice")	8.00- 9.00am	Paula Plaskow and Jason Kassemoff Jewish Care
	Public Health Approaches in Palliative Care: A Scottish perspective	12.00- 1.00pm	Dr Sally Paul, University of Strathclyde
	End of Life Care for Gypsy and Traveller Communities; Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill	3.00- 4.00pm	Michelle Gavin, Avril Fuller & colleague From Friends, Family & Travellers

Association of Palliative Care Social Workers

Monday 4th October	No Recourse to Public funds – definitions and who is affected	12.00-1.00pm	Aida Shoush, APCSW Welfare Benefits Adviser and Welfare Officer at St Christopher's Hospice
	Hospice Professionals experiences of Suicide and Assisted Dying (presentation and discussion)	3.00pm – 4.30pm	Dr Sheri Mila Gerson, Washington, USA Research Affiliate, University of Glasgow
Tuesday 5th October	“Breath of Life” Simple yoga practices	8.00-9.00am	Kate Binnie Music therapist Researcher: “Life of Breath” University of Bristol Yoga teacher
	Compassionate Communities	12.00-1.00pm	Professor Mari Lloyd-Williams, University of Liverpool
	AGM	1.00-2.00pm	Philippa Graham APCSW Chair
	Debate on Assisted Dying, using Breakout Rooms for part of the session	3.30 -4.30pm	